Message from the President

Greetings ATD Piedmont members! I am thrilled to serve as your new President and lead the chapter towards exciting new opportunities. We're undergoing a transformation to better serve our members and provide even more opportunities for growth and connection. Despite the on-going changes, amazing things are on the horizon with plans in the works for expanding the chapter's reach and impact through new partnerships, initiatives, and events. There's never been a better time to get involved. More to come soon!

Best Regards,
Janelle Howell, President
